Hi Team,
Greetings from Nipissing University!

Hope you are doing good and staying safe from COVID-19. I am writing this e-mail to introduce Nipissing University and to extend my intent to get Nipissing University associated with you as one of your partnering institutes.

Nipissing University is located in North Bay, Ontario, Canada and offers a wide range of programs to undergraduate, post-baccalaureate and masters students. We are ranked among the top universities in Canada in terms of the overall student experience. Nipissing University is recognized for providing an individualized student experience, having supportive and accessible professors, small class sizes, research opportunities for undergraduate students.

We would like to schedule a Skype / Zoom session in the coming weeks as per mutually convenient date and timings which will be oriented towards disseminating the information about the university. The primary objective will be to let the prospects know about the location, programs, fees and eligibility, lifestyle at the university so that they can counsel prospect students to make a wise career choice.

Before we proceed with this session, I would request you to kindly fill the attached Agent Evaluation Form to initiate the process of the agency agreement along with your company profile.

We envision your unconditional support to meet the objective as mentioned above.
Thank you.
