I have reviewed all of the information before me including client's previous employment and educational history

Client applying to study: Graphic & Web Design and Business Administration at ABC Access Business College.

Insufficient proof of financial status; GIC and tuition fee not submitted. I have concerns the applicant does not have sufficient finances readily available to fully cover their tuition and living costs while studying in Canada. See proof of funds

English test results have not been provided; unable to determine applicant's ability to handle an English-language course load. I have concerns with the applicant's ability to handle an English-language course load, given the added difficulties for those studying abroad.

No evidence of previous studies; missing marks sheets, academic record and diplomas. Unable to determine applicant's ability to successfully complete the study program in Canada.

Based on all information on file including the applicant's relevance of the proposed course of study, language abilities, personal establishment, financial ability and ties to home country, I am not satisfied the purpose of the studies is reasonable and/or that the applicant is a bona fide student who would depart Canada at the end of the authorized stay.

Application refused.
