Dear HARPREET SINGH,

Thank you for your interest in studying in Canada. After careful review of your study permit application and supporting documentation, I have determined that your application does not meet the requirements of the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act (IRPA) and Immigration and Refugee Protection Regulations (IRPR). I am refusing your application on the following grounds:

- I am not satisfied that you will leave Canada at the end of your stay, as stipulated in subsection 216(1) of the IRPR, based on the purpose of your visit.
- Your proposed studies are not reasonable in light of: your qualifications, previous studies, missing mark sheets, academic record, level of establishment, language abilities, and/or your future prospects and plans.

You are welcome to reapply if you feel that you can respond to these concerns and can demonstrate that your situation meets the requirements. All new applications must be accompanied by a new processing fee.

Sincerely,

Biometric Instruction Letter

Dear HARPREET SINGH,

This letter refers to your application to Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada (IRCC) for one of the following documents:

- temporary resident permit;
- work permit;
- study permit;
- temporary resident visa;
- visitor record;
- permanent resident application; or
- permanent resident card renewal.

Under the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act (IRPA) and its Regulations, you are required to have your fingerprints scanned and your photograph taken (your biometrics) at a biometric collection service point to help Visa Officers determine if you may enter or stay in Canada. Most applicants will need to give their biometrics at a biometric collection service point abroad before they travel to Canada.

Only those who are eligible to apply for a work permit or a study permit at a designated port of entry can give their biometrics upon arrival.

Why is IRCC collecting my fingerprints and photograph?

Your biometric information will be used under the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act (IRPA) and its Regulations to determine if you may enter or stay in Canada. Your fingerprints may also be shared with law enforcement agencies in Canada and may be used for the enforcement of any Canadian or provincial law. For more information about why the Government of Canada collects biometrics, how it uses your information and how it protects your privacy, please visit:

<https://www.canada.ca/en/immigration-refugees-citizenship/campaigns/biometrics/facts.html> and
<https://www.canada.ca/en/immigration-refugees-citizenship/campaigns/biometrics/protecting-applicants-privacy.html>.

What you need to do next:

You need to take this letter with you and go in person to any biometric collection service point to have your fingerprints and photograph taken. Before you go, you need to make an appointment.

- If you are outside Canada or the United States, you may go to any Visa Application Centre (VAC) most convenient to you.
- If you are in the United States, you may go to a United States Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS), Application Support Center (ASC) or a Visa Application Centre (VAC) located in the United States or its territories.
- If you are in Canada, you may go to a designated Service Canada location.

For more information on where to give your biometrics, please visit:

<https://www.canada.ca/en/immigration-refugees-citizenship/campaigns/biometrics/where-to-give-biometrics.html>.

What you need to bring with you:

When you present yourself at the biometric collection service point of your choice, you must bring the following:

- a copy of this letter, and
- the passport or travel document that you referenced in your application.

Note: This letter is also your proof that:

- you have paid the biometric fee; or
- you have claimed an exemption from the biometric fee under section 315.1 of the Immigration and Refugee Protection Regulations (IRPR). If, after reviewing your request, it is determined that you do not qualify for an exemption and are required to pay the biometric fee, you will be contacted by IRCC and your fee payment options will be explained to you.
