Dear Idowu Ayobami Adinlewa,

Student ID: 2024040165

Congratulations and welcome!

Yorkville University and the faculty of the Bachelor of Business Administration (Project Management) are pleased to inform you that you have been accepted into the program starting October 2024.

You can find your Letter of Acceptance (valid for October 2024 and January 2025 intake) and ON Provincial Attestation Letter (valid until January 21st, 2025) in the following pages. These documents are required as part of your study permit application to Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada (IRCC). In light of the recent announcement on the international student cap, we strongly encourage you to apply for your study permit early.

Additional information about the registration process will be sent to you via e-mail.

Again, congratulations on being admitted into the Bachelor of Business Administration (Project Management) program. The faculty and staff look forward to working with you to achieve your academic and professional goals.

Sincerely,

Julia Christensen Hughes, Ph.D.
President and Vice-Chancellor
Yorkville University

Study Permits

- All international students must have a valid Study Permit from a Canadian Consulate/Embassy to study at Yorkville University.
- All Study Permit applicants must record the Yorkville University Designated Learning Institution (DLI) Number on their study permit application. (Note that the first character of the DLI number is a capital letter O and not a zero).
- You must submit a copy of your valid Study Permit and your Canadian address and phone number to your Admission Advisors prior to the first day of class.
- If you plan to commence program online until transit to Canada is possible for on-campus studies, please discuss with your Admissions Advisors about the appropriate visa status documents to submit before your first day of online classes.

Working While Studying

- International students are often eligible to work in Canada while studying. Please visit the Government of Canada website for more information: <https://www.canada.ca/en/immigration-refugees-citizenship/services/study-canada/work.html>

Post-Graduation Work Permit (PGWP)

- The Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada (IRCC) policy is available at <https://www.canada.ca/en/immigration-refugees-citizenship/services/study-canada/work/after-graduation/eligibility.html>. It states you are eligible to apply for the Post-Graduation Work Permit Program if you graduated from a Canadian private school that can legally award degrees under provincial law.
- Yorkville University recommends all students interested in applying to extend their stay in Canada contact IRCC or a Registered Canadian Immigration Consultant (RCIC) for more information.

On-Campus/Virtual Orientation (Mandatory)

- The orientation (on-campus if you're in Canada or virtual if you're out of Canada) is mandatory before your program commences. You can hear from our academic team and support departments to set you up for success.
- The on-campus orientation will be held prior to the first day of classes. Please plan your arrival date accordingly.
- Your Admissions Advisor will notify you of the dates and times of your orientation. You can also visit us at <https://www.yorkvilleu.ca/events/>

Airport Service

- Airport pick-up services are available through a third party at a cost to the student. Please contact your Admissions Advisor, who can provide you with valuable information regarding this service.

Accommodation

- Yorkville University & Toronto Film School are pleased to partner with 4stay to offer students and community members a variety of housing and affordable rooms for rent around the campus. Anyone can use this portal to easily search online for fully furnished apartments with all utilities included, private rooms, shared rooms and entire homes for a semester, a year, month-to-month or short-term rentals. For those students who want to experience local culture, 4stay also offers homestay programs. Please visit <https://housing.yorkvilleu.ca/> for more information.
- Please ensure you have accommodation arranged for yourself before you leave to come to Canada. A credit card issued by a Canadian Bank may be required to secure your accommodation booking.

Health Insurance

- All international students will be automatically enrolled in a mandatory health insurance plan through Yorkville University. Please visit <https://www.studyinsured.com/yorkvilleu> for more information. Note: Your health insurance coverage will commence on the first day of your program start, provided that your fees have been paid. If you arrive in Canada before your program start date, it is your responsibility to ensure that you have adequate health insurance coverage.
