Dear Komalpreet:

Congratulations! The Career and Professional Development Division, Centre for Continuing Education, is pleased to inform you that you have gained admission to the University of Regina. You are now a First Nations University of Canada student. This letter is for submission for your study permit; please ensure to keep a copy for your records.

Student ID #: 200412226

Date of Birth: 25/09/1999

Program of Study to be taken: Certificate in Indigenous Management Level II

Faculty: Continuing Education

Major: N/A

Duration of Program: A Certificate in Indigenous Management Level II through Career and Professional Development, Centre for Continuing Education is a 12-month program.

Cost of Program of Study: The approximate cost of tuition for this program is $22,000.00. Please note the cost represents fees for classes only and tuition is subject to change without notice.

PLEASE NOTE: You are eligible to start your studies at the beginning of any one of the following semesters. Depending upon the timing of your application for admission and your arrival, there are no guarantees that seats will be available in the desired courses. It is suggested that you arrive in Regina with enough time to get settled before the start of term:

- Fall 2018 term starting on September 5, 2018
- Winter 2019 term starting on January 8, 2019
- Spring/Summer 2019* term starting on May (exact date TBA), 2019

*Some classes begin in May while others begin in July

We wish you the best of luck in your studies!

Yours truly,

Robin Markel, M.A.
Head, Career & Professional Development Division
Centre for Continuing Education

You are required to:

- Register for the international student orientation by going to <http://www.uregina.ca/international/current/steps/orientation.html>
- If you have submitted a scan or fax of your high school credentials and/or post-secondary transcripts show us your original documents once you have arrived on campus.
- Bring your passport and study permit into UR International within 30 days of your arrival to Canada.
- To be considered for transfer credits you are required to have original transcripts mailed DIRECTLY from your previous institution to the University of Regina in a sealed envelope.

As a student at the U of R, you now have access to UR Self-Service which allows you to update personal information, view scheduled courses, register in/drop classes, view/pay tuition owed, order textbooks or parking permits, and much more. To access UR Self-Service, click the “Login to UR Self-Service” icon located on the University’s home page at www.uregina.ca. Your User ID is your Student ID number noted above, and your default PIN is your birth date (DDMMYY).

You also have been assigned a U of R email account. Retrieve your user name and password from the IT Support Centre link found under Quicklinks on the University’s home page; choose “Student Information”.

The U of R sends all official email to this address, so it is important to check your email account regularly or forward it to one that you use. Your email address will be added to the email web directory of registered students 30 days after you register, unless you opt out at the IT Support Centre site; call (306) 585-4685 for assistance.

If you would like to make a tuition payment before your arrival, you can do so using peerTransfer. To get started, go to uregina.peertransfer.com to create a peerTransfer login and fill out your payment details. Once the necessary information is entered, you will receive payment delivery instructions on how to send your payment to peerTransfer by visiting your bank (online, phone, or in person).

peerTransfer will convert the funds into Canadian dollars and will send the amount to the University of Regina where it will be credited to your student account. You will be able to login to your peerTransfer account at any time to track the progress of your payment. Please note – it may take up to 3 business days for the University of Regina to post the payment to your account.

Looking forward to seeing you on campus very soon!
