Dear Manpreet Kaur

Your application is being dealt with by Team I. Our email address is teami@beds.ac.uk, our telephone number is +44 (0)1582 489785

I am pleased to confirm that you have a conditional offer of a place on a course at the University of Bedfordshire as follows:

Course title: BSc (Hons) Biomedical Science
Course level: 1 (NQF6)
JACS code: C100
Start date: 27 January 2020
Expected end date: 10 June 2022
Course fee £12350.00

Campus: University Square Campus, Luton
Mode of study: Full-Time
Estimated living costs: £1,015 per month
Representative code: AG896

Student reference number: 1923189 (please quote this number when contacting us)

Conditions: Pre-payment of all tuition fee is required to obtain an unconditional offer letter
After payment of fees, submit satisfactory Bank Statements/proof of funds, which fulfil the criteria for a Tier 4 visa application.
Provide skype ID. Provide TB certificate from an approved Health Centre. Successfully pass Skype interview with the International Office.
Please confirm you will live in Luton where your course is running. Confirm if you have had any previous visa refusal from any country.
Provide a personal statement which explains your reasons for applying for your chosen course at the University of Bedfordshire.
Complete and return GDPR form.

Full-time Postgraduate and Undergraduate students will receive a special Vice Chancellor's Scholarship of £1,000. The Vice Chancellor's Scholarship will apply to the first year of study only.

You may also be entitled to a tuition fee discount of £500 on full payment of the published fee before or at registration.

Please note, you will be required to submit satisfactory Bank Statements, which fulfil the criteria for proof of funds for a Tier 4 visa application. We will also contact you to help you to prepare for your Credibility Interview. Once we are fully satisfied that you are ready to apply for your visa we will issue your CAS.

By accepting this offer you agree to live close to the campus. We recommend no more than a 5 to 10 mile radius and we will check your address at registration and at intervals throughout your studies.

If you have any queries about this offer please do not hesitate to contact the International Admissions department. Please contact us as soon as you have met the conditions of your offer, sending the appropriate documentary evidence. Our contact details are printed above.

If you are required to submit copies of certificates or references please ensure that they are clearly marked with your name and student number. Once you have met the academic conditions, you will be required to pay a deposit in order to obtain a CAS (Confirmation of Acceptance for Studies). You will need this in order to apply for a Tier 4 Student Visa. The amount you will need to pay is included in the conditions at the top of this letter. We encourage you to pay 100% which will entitle you to the maximum scholarship amount outlined above.

In order to complete registration, all students need to pay at least 65% of their full fees. If you have paid less than this before you arrive at the University, the balance of 65% must be paid when you register. The remaining 35% can be paid in one of two ways. You may pay the remaining 35% in one instalment within three months of having registered. You will then be entitled to a £150 discount and no handling charge. Alternatively, you may pay the remaining balance (35%) of tuition fees in five instalments. The first instalment is due within three months of registering, with the remaining four instalments being due at monthly intervals. If you choose this second option, you will be required to pay a £100 administration fee.

Please ensure that you quote your name, date of birth and student reference number above when paying money to the University and please allow two weeks for the fees to reach us. You can pay tuition fees to the University by Bank Transfer or Bankers Draft favouring the University of Bedfordshire. The University's account details are as follows:

Bank Name: HSBC
Address: 63 George Street, Luton, Bedfordshire, LU1 2AP, UK
Sort Code: 40-30-32
Account Name: University of Bedfordshire
Account Number: 21425374
IBAN Code: GB20HBUK40303221425374
Swift Code: HBUKGB4144A

Please carefully check all your details on page 1 and keep this offer letter safe, as it is an important document. By accepting a University of Bedfordshire offer, you are agreeing to be bound by the University's rules and regulations.

The arrangements for paying your fees, refunds and administrative charges applicable to you both before and after registration at the University are contained in the University's Tuition Fees Policy available at www.beds.ac.uk/howtoapply/money/fees/policy. This is a very important document which forms part of the terms and conditions of your offer and you should read and understand this policy prior to accepting your place at the University. If you do not have access to this University web page, or you have any queries about this offer or our policy and how it applies to you, please send us a letter or email your team at the email address above. Refunds will only be given if you are refused a student visa. You should send a copy of your visa refusal documents quoting your student reference number to the address above.

Once you have met the conditions of the offer and paid your deposit, please email the address above to confirm we have received your payment. You will then be sent a CAS letter by email. Be sure to apply for your visa in plenty of time and use the visa guide we will send to you with your CAS. You can also find this on our website <http://www.beds.ac.uk/international/visas-your-questions-answered>. Once you have got your visa, you can book your accommodation and flights. We will email you pre-arrival information and you should be sure to arrive in time for your orientation, registration and induction sessions. These are available to all students.

The University offers accommodation in modern halls of residence. There are limited places so you are advised to apply as soon as possible. Details of accommodation can be found on the website: www.studentvillagebeds.com

We want you to get the most out of your time with us, which is why the University has created a core programme of English language communication skills, which all international students must attend. We know how important it is, both during your time at University and in your career afterwards, to continually develop and enhance your intercultural communication skills. Please find information on our website <http://www.beds.ac.uk/international/courses/communications-skills>.

If you have a disability or medical condition, which could affect your ability to undertake your chosen course, you are strongly advised to contact the Disability Advice Team (Tel +44 (0) 1582 743915, email disability@beds.ac.uk) at an early stage to discuss your needs. This will help to ensure that any particular issues are identified and you are aware of the likely sources of help.

The University is committed to the provision of high quality, fair and transparent admissions procedures for all our applicants. There may, however, be occasions when an applicant will wish to ask why their application has been rejected or believe that they have cause for a complaint or to make an appeal against the decision. The process for applicants to request feedback or to make an appeal against a decision is outlined within the Admissions Policy which can be found at <http://www.beds.ac.uk/howtoapply/admissions/admissions-principles-and-policy>

Please note that all contracts and agreements are governed by English law and are within the jurisdiction of the English courts. If you have any queries about your offer please do not hesitate to contact International Admissions.

Yours sincerely,

Professor Ashraf Jawaid
