TRU Tuition Fee Refund Rule

All new international applicants to TRU should be aware that tuition deposit for the first semester is non-refundable and non-transferable. It is the responsibility of the student to familiarize themselves with TRU refund rules and conditions, as well as important deadlines and to plan and budget accordingly.

After receiving a letter of acceptance issued by TRU, all new international applicants are expected to begin their studies at TRU in the designated semester noted in their current Letter of Acceptance. Students who do not receive a study permit decision prior to the visa confirmation deadline are required to request a deferral.

All new international admitted applicants to TRU who receive a visa and study permit prior to the visa confirmation deadline (including students who are approved for deferral) are expected to begin their studies at TRU in the designated semester noted in their original letter of acceptance.

New students withdrawing due to a failure to obtain a student permit are eligible for a full refund of tuition and general fees invoiced less a $200 administration fee. Students must notify TRU in writing prior to course change/course withdrawal deadline to avoid a deposit forfeit and provide official documentation from IRCC indicating that their study permit request was denied. TRU reserves the right to contact IRCC to verify the status of a visa and/or study permit application and/or to verify the contents of a refusal letter.

To submit a refund request:

1. Notify International Admissions of study permit denial.
2. Complete the refund request form. All refunds will be processed through PayMyTuition. You will receive an e-mail from PayMyTuition confirm how you want your refund payment processed.

To submit a deferral to a future semester:

Students that wish to defer the start of their first semester of study to a future semester may do so only once and up to a maximum of one calendar year (i.e. a student accepted to the fall semester may defer until the next fall semester but not beyond). Students must notify TRU in writing (igrad@tru.ca) prior to course change/course withdrawal deadline (Important deadlines) to avoid a deposit forfeit. Once the deferral has expired, a student will need to reapply if they wish to commence studies later. Deferral requests must be submitted prior to the start of the semester.
