Dear Manpreet Singh,

Congratulations, you have been conditionally accepted into the Graduate Certificate - Project Management program offered through Professional and Continuing Education at the Brampton campus, beginning September 6th, 2023!

Algoma University is proud to be a student-centred, teaching-focused university that cultivates cross-cultural learning between staff, faculty, and students from across Canada and around the world. Whether it's one-on-one interactions with faculty, experiential learning inside and outside of the classroom, or undergraduate research opportunities, Algoma University students have the opportunity to leave their mark on campus and make a difference in their community, while preparing themselves for a career in a variety of different fields. We're excited to offer you a place in our growing community of students.

Please review this Preliminary Letter of Acceptance thoroughly to ensure you understand your next steps, policies and deadlines.

Accepting Your Alternate Intake

You have earned a Preliminary Letter of Acceptance to a primary intake, as well as an alternate intake. Should you choose to opt for the alternate intake, please let us know by June 14th, 2023. If we have not received your deposit by the above deadline, we will automatically defer your Preliminary Letter of Acceptance to the alternate intake date. Campus and program availability is subject to change.

Refund Policy

To view our full refund policy, please visit

<https://www.algomau.ca/students/tuition-fees-important-dates/algoma-university-refund-policy/>.

Refunds will only be issued to students who:

- provide written proof for the Canadian High Commission/Canadian Embassy that their study permit was denied, canceled, or officially withdrawn or
- have their pre-offer rescinded after a secondary review of their application because they do not meet the university document and admission requirements in full

For complete information regarding your academic and financial obligations, you may also refer to the Algoma University Academic Calendar, found at
