IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Recent changes to Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada Study Permit Applications

Effective January 22, 2024 Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada has mandated that an attestation letter from the Government of Ontario is required for initial study permit applications (study permit extensions are currently excluded).

The Government of Ontario is expected to establish a process for requesting an attestation letter by March 31, 2024.

Do not submit your study permit application until you have an attestation letter from the Government of Ontario.

Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada will return any study visa applications received on or after January 22, 2024 (EST) without an attestation letter unless you are exempt.
