Dear Nuri Mohammad:

Congratulations and welcome to the University of Regina! We are pleased to offer you admission to the University of Regina in the following program:

Program: Bachelor of Science
Faculty: Science
Major: Data Science
Program Length: 4 years (120 credit hours)

Program Start Date: You are eligible to start your studies in either of the following terms. Terms start in the first week of September (Fall), January (Winter), and May/July (Spring/Summer).
Winter 2026 or Spring/Summer 2026

Tuition Fees: Approximately $27,000.00 per year. This amount does not include living expenses or materials related to the academic course load, and is subject to change without notice.

International undergraduate students are required to accept their offer of admission and pay a $1,000.00 tuition deposit to confirm their offer. International students are also required to apply for a study permit in order to study in Canada. Present this letter and your tuition deposit receipt when you apply for your study permit.

If you have any questions please contact the International Enrolment Services office at 1-306-585-6260 or at international.admissions@uregina.ca. We wish you every success in your studies!

Sincerely,

Haroon Chaudhry

Your Next Steps:

- ✓ Accept Your Offer through Your Application Portal
- ✓ Pay Your Tuition Deposit
 - Undergraduate international students on a study permit are required to pay a $1,000.00 tuition deposit upon acceptance of admission.
 - Class registration cannot proceed for new students until payment of the deposit is received.
 - The deposit may be transferred between terms for the period the admission offer is valid.
 - 100% of the tuition deposit is applied toward tuition and fees.
 - Pay your tuition deposit through your student portal by Credit Card or Flywire.
 - The tuition deposit is non-refundable unless your study permit application is denied, in which case you can request a partial refund of your tuition deposit in the amount of $500.00. Please email refund requests to international.admissions@uregina.ca.
- ✓ Provincial Attestation Letter
 - Students are required to have a Provincial Attestation Letter (PAL) before applying for a study permit. Once you are fully accepted, and have replied to your offer and paid your tuition deposit, you will be eligible for the U of R to request your PAL from the Government of Saskatchewan. The province will then issue your PAL through the MyCreds platform. After you have paid your tuition deposit, ensure that you login, and have access to, your uregina email account. You will be notified by email to your uregina email account when your PAL is available to download from MyCreds.
- ✓ Apply for Your Study Permit
 - Once you receive your Attestation Letter, you can apply for your study permit from Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada (IRCC). It is recommended to apply for a study permit well in advance of your intended start date.
 - For more information about applying for a study permit, please visit the IRCC website here.
 - You will be issued your study permit by a border officer when you enter Canada. You are required to submit a copy of your study permit and student visa to UR International after you arrive.
- ✓ Review Your Next Steps Checklist
 - Your Application Portal has a Next Steps Checklist to help you navigate the steps between being accepted and arriving in Regina. Follow this information closely to learn how to prepare yourself for studies at the U of R, and for your transition to life in Canada. You can also contact international.studentservices@uregina.ca for support!

Dear Nuri Mohammad:

Welcome to the University of Regina!

Situated in the heart of the Canadian prairies, our rich heritage, growing diversity, and culture of service excellence guide all that we do to ensure our students' experiences exceed all expectations. Our commitment is, and always will be, to you – our students.

On our campuses, you will be supported not only in your academic pursuits, but your career and life goals as well, through innovative research, access to world-class facilities, exceptional programming, and a multitude of experiential learning opportunities that will help you shape your future through hands-on experience in your area of study. We provide extensive physical and mental health supports through our Student Wellness Centre and other services.

We are working closely with our Indigenous partners to reconcile our past and build a better tomorrow. You will be welcomed into a community that is empowered by diversity and empathy - qualities and strengths that make the University of Regina a world-class institution.

It is truly an honour to personally extend my sincerest greetings to you as a future student. Together, as always, we bridge opportunity and achievement in the true Saskatchewan spirit of cooperation and collaboration.

Thank you for considering the University of Regina as your future home away from home to further your educational dreams. Let's go far, together.

Sincerely,

Haroon Chaudhry

Dear Nuri Mohammad:

We are absolutely thrilled to inform you that you have been selected as a recipient of the prestigious International Student of Distinction Scholarship in the Tier 2 category. This is a significant achievement, and we are delighted to recognize your academic excellence and potential with this esteemed award.

As a recipient of this scholarship, you will receive free on-campus housing throughout your four years at the U of R, with an impressive approximate value of $40,000 CAD! You will also receive amazing supportive programming including: one-on-one immigration support, guidance for your transition to life in Canada, personalized orientation, and a welcome banquet with University leadership.

This award recognizes the excellent academic achievements of students based on the following criteria:

- Admitted into a full undergraduate degree program
- Entering on a study permit and paying international student tuition rates
- Entering from a secondary school, and
- Admitted with an outstanding academic average

To be eligible to receive the International Student of Distinction Scholarship, you will need to reply to your offer in your student portal and pay your tuition deposit as soon as possible.

We are incredibly proud to welcome you to the University of Regina community and are excited to see the remarkable contributions you will undoubtedly make during your time here. To take advantage of this scholarship and secure your free on-campus housing, please contact the Scholarship & Program Coordinator at ISD.scholarship@uregina.ca.

Warmest regards,

Haroon Chaudhry

Scholarship Terms and Conditions

- If you were conditionally admitted to the University of Regina, your final grades must continue to meet our admission requirements and meet the minimum requirements for the International Student of Distinction scholarship.
- This scholarship is renewable each year for up to three years (3.5 years for the Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science). The conditions of renewal are as follows:

First-Year Students

- Complete a minimum of 30 credit hours per 12-month cycle from the semester you begin.
- Of the 30 credit hours completed, at least 24 credit hours must have a UGPA of 80%.
- Achieve a minimum UGPA of 75%.

Second-Year and Third-Year Students

- Complete a minimum of 30-credit hours in each academic year.
- Achieve a minimum UGPA of 80%.

- If you do not complete 30 credit hours per 12-month cycle, the scholarship will be permanently rescinded, at which time you will become responsible for future housing costs.
- If your UGPA drops below 80%, the scholarship will be rescinded, at which time you will become responsible for future housing costs. If you raise your UGPA above 80%, and you have met the credit hour requirement per 12-month cycle, the scholarship will be reinstated the following term.
- You will be required to participate in recruitment initiatives and agree to be featured in the University of Regina's international recruitment promotional campaigns.
- Non-academic and academic misconduct may result in loss of scholarship.
- You will not receive the scholarship during Co-op work term(s) and/or official U of R semester-based exchange programs.
- Recipients of this scholarship are not eligible for other scholarships funded by the University of Regina.

As a recipient of this scholarship, it is your responsibility to ensure you meet the eligibility to renew the scholarship in future semesters. Please ensure you save a copy of these terms and conditions for your reference. The Scholarship & Program Coordinator will arrange a meeting to review these conditions and support you in implementing a plan to successfully remain eligible for the scholarship.

Should you have any questions regarding the terms and conditions, please contact the Scholarship & Program Coordinator at ISD.scholarship@uregina.ca.
