Dear Harmanpreet Singh,

Congratulations! We are excited to offer you admission to the Southern Alberta Institute of Technology (SAIT) in the Culinary Arts program. We look forward to having you join our community as you begin this next step in your academic career.

A SAIT education is your foundation for success in the ever-evolving professional landscape. We capitalize on our strong history of industry partnerships to design programs that answer the needs of tomorrow.

This is your opportunity to shape your future. At SAIT, you'll find all the tools you need to succeed - from hands-on learning and living classrooms to our industry-connected faculty and relevant programs. You'll graduate with the knowledge and experience to make an immediate and long-lasting impact in your field.

A global mindset is essential to success in the 21st Century. You are joining an international community of leaders driven by a passion for excellence, and by furthering your education at SAIT, you're expanding your view of the world.

Our campus is energized by your creativity. Student success through applied education innovation has been core to what we do for more than 100 years, and it continues to be our focus into our second century. You are a part of that future, and you have every opportunity to make your mark. Our community is strong and vibrant, so get involved and make the most of your time here. You are now part of the SAIT family, and that relationship will last long after you graduate and cross the stage at convocation to receive your parchment. We can't wait for you to join us.

See Page 2 of this letter for your offer details and important next steps!

Welcome to SAIT! Share your excitement with us #HereAtSAIT

Sincerely,
