Your application for admission may be complete. Please check with your Admissions Advisor for any outstanding documents and submit them as soon as possible in order to move your application forward. These documents will undergo a secondary review for accuracy and completeness.

To complete your admission to TWU, we require your official final transcripts and, if an English proficiency test was required for your admission, your official test scores. These documents must be sent directly from the respective institutions to TWU Admissions. We recommend ordering these documents promptly, as delivery to TWU Admissions may take time. Please ensure you read our guide on submitting your transcripts at <https://www.twu.ca/admissions-aid/requesting-transcripts>.

Please note that international students must hold a valid study permit to study at TWU. This letter does not automatically guarantee the issuance of a Provincial Attestation Letter (PAL).

For international students who will be issued a PAL to apply for a study visa and permit, please note that personal information provided in your application will be included in the PAL and shared with Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada (IRCC) and the Ministry of Post-Secondary Education and Future Skills. This information will be used for authentication, verification, and program evaluation purposes in accordance with the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act.

You can view the estimated tuition and costs at: <https://www.twu.ca/admissions-aid/tuition-costs>.

If you haven't already done so, your next step will be to make an enrolment deposit which will secure your place in the program and give you access to online course registration. Information on deposit payment options can be found online at <http://www.twu.ca/school-graduate-studies/admitted-students> under "Enrolment Deposit."

Your student ID number is 670661. Please be sure to include this in all forms and correspondence that you have with Trinity Western University so we can provide you with the best possible service and experience.
