Dear AMRIT SINGH,

Thank you for your interest in studying in Canada. After a careful review of your study permit application and supporting documentation, I have determined that your application does not meet the requirements of the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act and Regulations. I am refusing your application.

In making a decision on an application, a number of factors are considered. These may include but are not limited to:

- whether the person has been accepted to study at a Canadian educational institution;
- the information in the travel and identity documents;
- the person's ability to pay for the trip, to pay tuition fees and to support himself or herself while in Canada;
- whether the person is likely to respect the conditions of his or her admission to Canada;
- whether the person is inadmissible to Canada; and
- whether the person would be likely to leave Canada at the end of his/her authorized stay.

To help you understand my decision, the reason(s) are provided on the following pages.

You are welcome to reapply if you feel that you can respond to these concerns and can demonstrate that your situation meets the requirements. All new applications must be accompanied by a new processing fee.

Sincerely,

High Commission of Canada

Subsection 11(1) of the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act (IRPA) provides that any person wishing to become a temporary resident of Canada must satisfy an officer that he or she is not inadmissible to Canada and that she or he meets the requirements of the Act.

Following an examination of your application, I am not satisfied that your application meets the requirements of the Act and the Regulations for the reasons explained below. Please note that only the grounds that are checked off apply to the refusal of your application.

☐ Pursuant to Section 219 of the Immigration and Refugee Protection Regulation, I am not satisfied that you:

- ☐ have submitted written documentation from the educational institution at which you intend to study that states that you have been accepted to study there
- ☐ have sufficient and available financial resources, without working in Canada, to pay the tuition fees for the course or program of studies that you intend to pursue
- ☐ have sufficient and available financial resources, without working in Canada, to maintain yourself and any family members who are accompanying you during your proposed period of study
- ☐ have sufficient and available financial resources, without working in Canada, to pay the costs of transporting yourself and any family members who are accompanying you to and from Canada.

☐ You have not submitted a Certificat d'acceptation du Québec (CAQ).

☐ You have not satisfied me that you would leave Canada at the end of your stay. In reaching this decision, I considered several factors, including:

- ☐ travel history
- ☐ immigration status in country of residence
- ☐ family ties in Canada and in country of residence
- ☐ length of proposed stay in Canada
- ☐ purpose of visit
- ☐ employment prospects in country of residence
- ☐ current employment situation
- ☐ personal assets and financial status.
- ☐ your history of having contravened the conditions of admission on a previous stay in Canada

☐ You have submitted documentation which lacks authenticity as part of your application. This has diminished the overall credibility of your submission. I was therefore not satisfied that you are not inadmissible to Canada and that you meet the requirements of the Act and Regulations. Specifically, I was not satisfied that the following documentation is authentic:

☐ You have not complied with our request for information, as per section 16(1) of the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act. To date, you have failed to comply with our request for:

- ☐ Completion of a medical examination
- ☐ An interview
- ☐ The following documents:

☐ From the documents which you have submitted in support of your application, I am not satisfied that you have answered all questions truthfully, as required by subsection 16(1) of the Act. Specifically, I am not satisfied that the following information is truthful:

☒ Other reasons:

Your proposed studies are not reasonable in light of one or more of the following: your qualifications, previous studies, missing mark sheets, academic record, level of establishment, language abilities, or your future prospects and plans.
