Dear NAVDEEP RANI,

Thank you for your interest in studying in Canada. After a careful review of your study permit application and supporting documentation, I have determined that your application does not meet the requirements of the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act and Regulations. I am refusing your application.

In making a decision on an application, a number of factors are considered. These may include but are not limited to:

- whether the person has been accepted to study at a Canadian educational institution;
- the information in the travel and identity documents;
- the person's ability to pay for the trip, to pay tuition fees and to support himself or herself while in Canada;
- whether the person is likely to respect the conditions of his or her admission to Canada;
- whether the person is inadmissible to Canada; and
- whether the person would be likely to leave Canada at the end of his/her authorized stay.

To help you understand my decision, the reason(s) are provided on the following pages.

You are welcome to reapply if you feel that you can respond to these concerns and can demonstrate that your situation meets the requirements. All new applications must be accompanied by a new processing fee.

Sincerely,

High Commission of Canada
