Dear RAMANPREET KAUR,

Thank you for your interest in studying in Canada. After careful review of your study permit application and supporting documentation, I have determined that your application does not meet the requirements of the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act (IRPA) and Immigration and Refugee Protection Regulations (IRPR). I am refusing your application on the following grounds:

- I am not satisfied that you will leave Canada at the end of your stay, as stipulated in subsection 216(1) of the IRPR, based on the purpose of your visit.

You are welcome to reapply if you feel that you can respond to these concerns and can demonstrate that your situation meets the requirements. All new applications must be accompanied by a new processing fee.

Register my application. Create an account to get more details on the status of your application and to receive your mail online. Find out how: http://www.cic.gc.ca/english/my_application/link.asp

When should I contact Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada (IRCC)?

You must notify IRCC of any changes to your application. Examples of changes include• changes in your personal circumstances, such as the birth or adoption of a child, death of a family member, a marriage or a divorce;• changes in contact information, such as email, mailing address or telephone number;• an appointment or change of an immigration representative or designated individual;• the decision to withdraw your application.Changes to your address should be made through our online service at www.cic.gc.ca/english/information/change-address.asp

Sincerely,
