This refers to your application for a Study Permit received 01/21/2025. No action is being taken to process your request for the following reasons:

[X] As per the Ministerial Instructions that came into force at 1:30pm GMT on January 22, 2024, an intake cap on most international student permit applications was established to stabilize new growth for a period of two years. Study permit applications submitted to Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada (IRCC) now require a provincial attestation letter from the intended province or territory of study, unless you meet the criteria for an exception as outlined in the Ministerial Instructions.

Your application did not include a provincial attestation letter from the province or territory where you plan to study and you do not meet the criteria for an exception. Therefore, in accordance with the Ministerial Instructions, your application is not accepted for processing and is now closed. Your processing fees will be refunded and may take between 6 to 8 weeks to arrive.

NOTE: Passports must be valid for the duration of your stay in Canada. Documents will not be issued beyond the validity of passports.

- Change of contact information (e-mail, mailing address, telephone number);

Changes to your address should be made through our online service at

How long will it take to process my application?

Processing times vary. You can consult the processing times by visiting the CIC website at www.cic.gc.ca/english/information/times/temp.asp. Please note that, given the high volume of inquiries submitted to this office and Canadian visa offices abroad, status updates on cases are not normally provided unless the processing time for a file is longer than the service standards outlined in the CIC website.
