Dear Priyanka Ashok Jayaswal,

Thank you for your interest in studying in Canada. I have reviewed your study permit application and supporting documentation to assess whether you meet the requirements for a study permit (<https://www.canada.ca/en/immigration-refugees-citizenship/services/study-canada/study-permit/eligibility.html>). This includes assessing whether you are coming to Canada temporarily for the reason(s) you describe in your application. I have determined that your application does not meet the requirements of the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act (IRPA) (<https://laws-lois.justice.gc.ca/eng/acts/I-2.5/index.html>) and Immigration and Refugee Protection Regulations (IRPR) (<https://laws-lois.justice.gc.ca/eng/regulations/sor-2002-227/index.html>). I am refusing your application.

- I am not satisfied that you will leave Canada at the end of your stay as required by paragraph R216(1)(b) of the IRPR (<https://laws-lois.justice.gc.ca/eng/regulations/sor-2002-227/section-216.html>). I am refusing your application because you have not established that you will leave Canada, based on the following factors:
- The purpose of your visit to Canada is not consistent with a temporary stay given the details you have provided in your application.
- Pursuant to paragraph 220(a) of the IRPR, I am not satisfied that you have sufficient and available financial resources, without working in Canada, to pay the tuition fees for the course or program of studies that you intend to pursue.
- Pursuant to paragraph 220(b) of the IRPR, I am not satisfied that you have sufficient and available financial resources, without working in Canada, to maintain yourself and any family members who are accompanying you during your proposed period of study.
- I am not satisfied that you have sufficient and available financial resources to pay the tuition fees for the program of studies that you intend to pursue and to pay for living expenses while in Canada.

To get help with understanding your temporary resident application refusal and what you can do next, visit: <https://www.cic.gc.ca/visit-visiter/en/refusal-visa-application>.

Next Steps:

- If you decide to apply again, know that:
 - your new application will be assessed on its own merits,
 - you must resubmit a new application and all relevant supporting documents and pay a new temporary resident application fee, and
 - your new application may be refused unless it is supported by new or different information that would satisfy the officer that you meet all application requirements.
