Masuma Afrin Taniya,

This letter refers to your application to study in Canada. I have reviewed your application and supporting documentation to assess whether you meet the requirements for a study permit. This includes assessing whether you have met the relevant requirements of the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act (IRPA) and the Immigration and Refugee Protection Regulations (IRPR).

Upon completion of the assessment, I have determined that your application does not meet the requirements of IRPA and IRPR. I am refusing your application for the reason(s) outlined below:

- I am not satisfied that you will leave Canada at the end of your stay as required by paragraph R216(1)(b) of the IRPR (<https://laws-lois.justice.gc.ca/eng/regulations/sor-2002-227/section-216.html>). I am refusing your application because you have not established that you will leave Canada, based on the following factors:
 - R216(1)(b): Given the details you have provided in your application, I am not satisfied that your purpose for coming to Canada is consistent with a temporary stay.
 - Your proposed studies are not reasonable in light of one or more of: your qualifications, previous studies, missing mark sheets, academic record, level of establishment/available financial resources, language abilities, or your future prospects and plans.
 - R220(a) Insufficient Funds/Resources pertaining to your Tuition: I am not satisfied that you have sufficient and available financial resources, without working in Canada, to pay the tuition fees for the course or program of studies that you intend to pursue.
 - R220(b) Insufficient Funds/Resources to support yourself and any accompanying family members: I am not satisfied that you have sufficient and available financial resources, without working in Canada, to maintain yourself and any family members who are accompanying you during your proposed period of study.

Sincerely,

Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada | Immigration, Réfugiés et Citoyenneté Canada
